ACORN 1973
alameda high school
alameda, California

Try to love and understand, not just today, but everyday. You will discover that today, and those days following will be the most humanistic and beautiful days of your life.

me

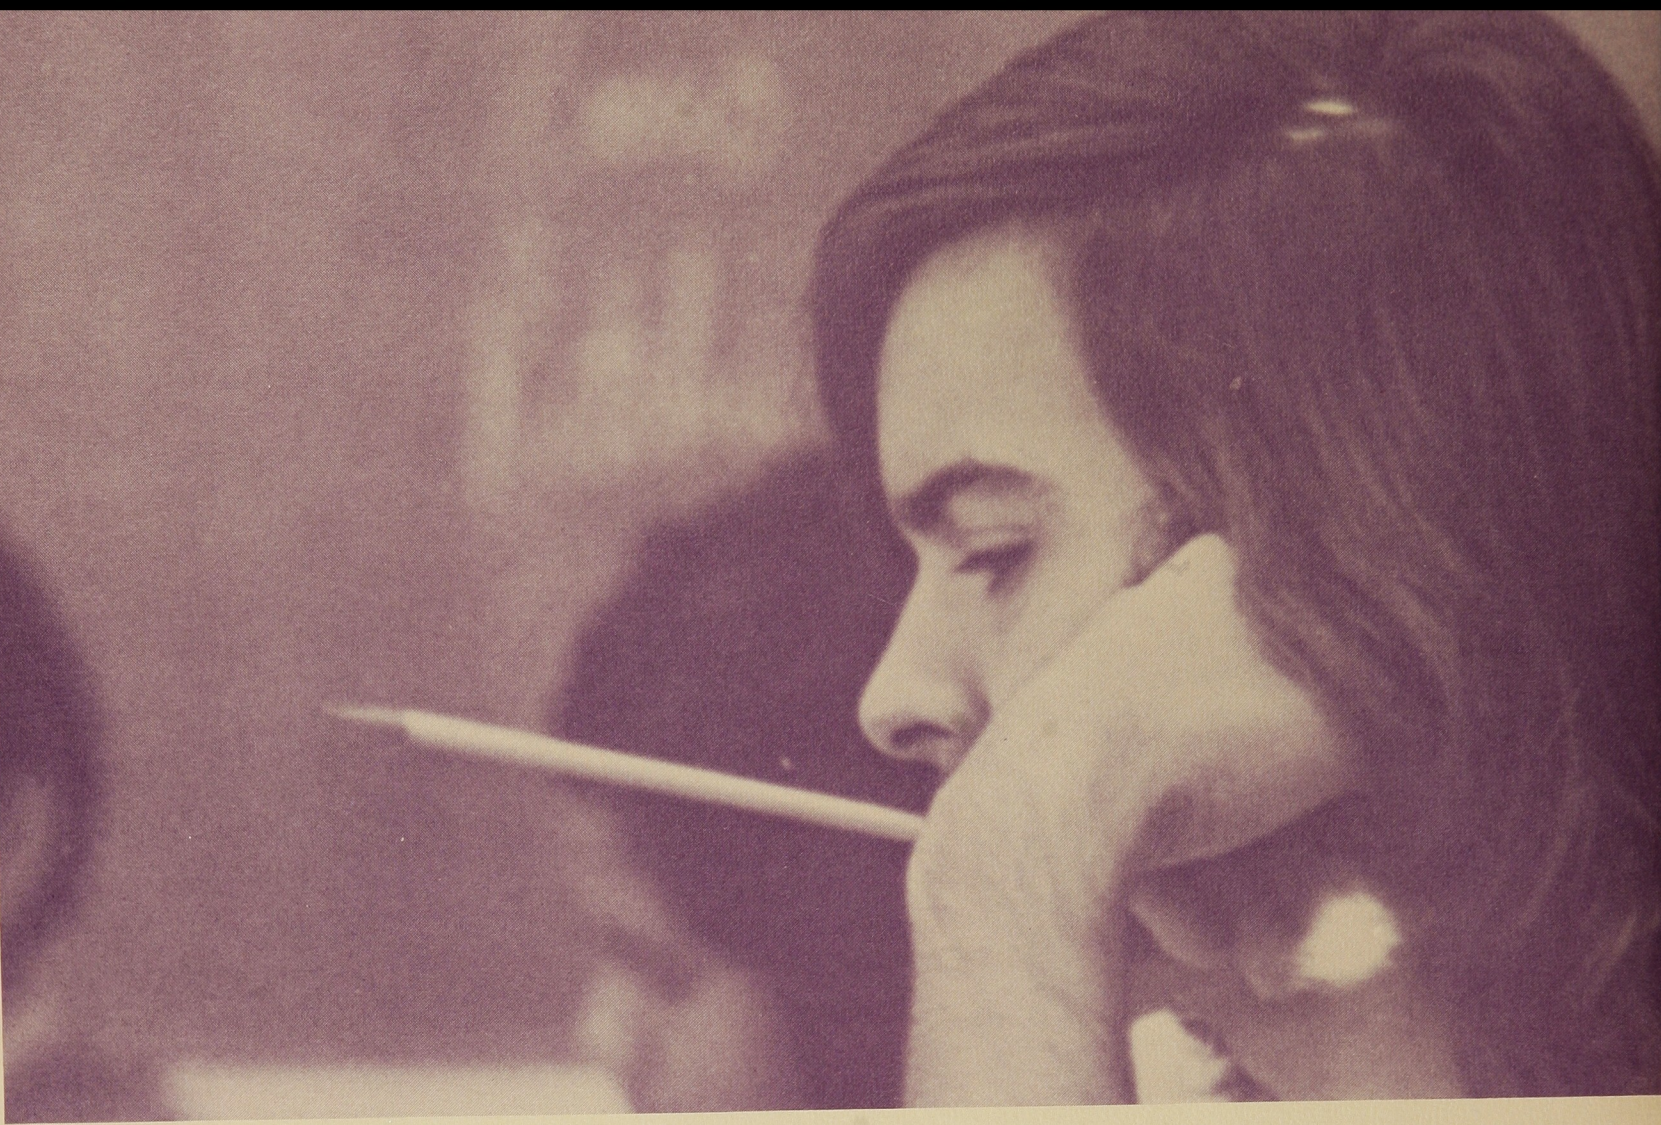

scared, uncertain

walking, talking, moving, lakes, trees, flowers, birds,

walking, talking, loving,
uninterested, insensitive,

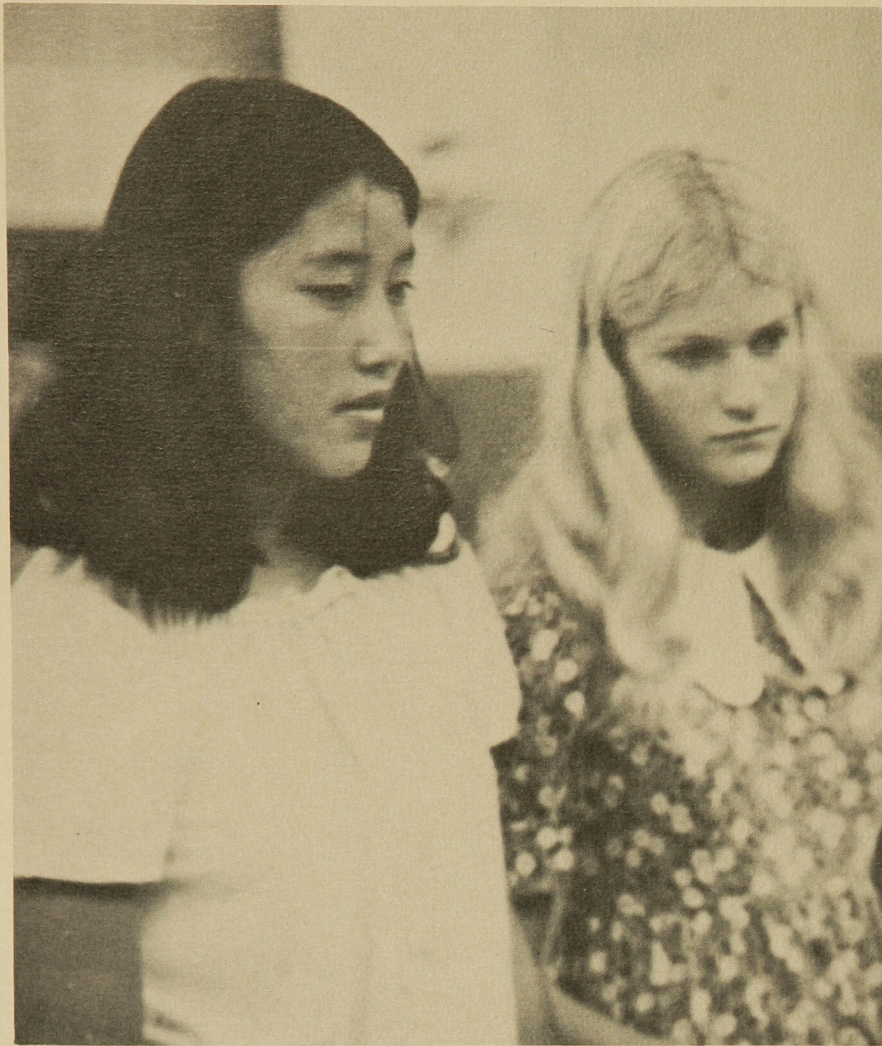

you.

am I the only one in life
who always seems to stand apart?
OR IS IT EVERYONE who feels a little lonesome in his heart?

along the street the people walk,
they look so complacent
free and wise and yet I sometimes think I see a prisoner behind their eyes.

Where are all those faultless people
so brilliant gay and kind.
those super-friends
we dream of and somehow never find.

We ask for understanding,
But often what we mean
is that all our friends will see us as we'd rather we'd been seen.

We're all part Of one BIG plan, to work together, not compete . . .

Officers pull a.h.s. Together

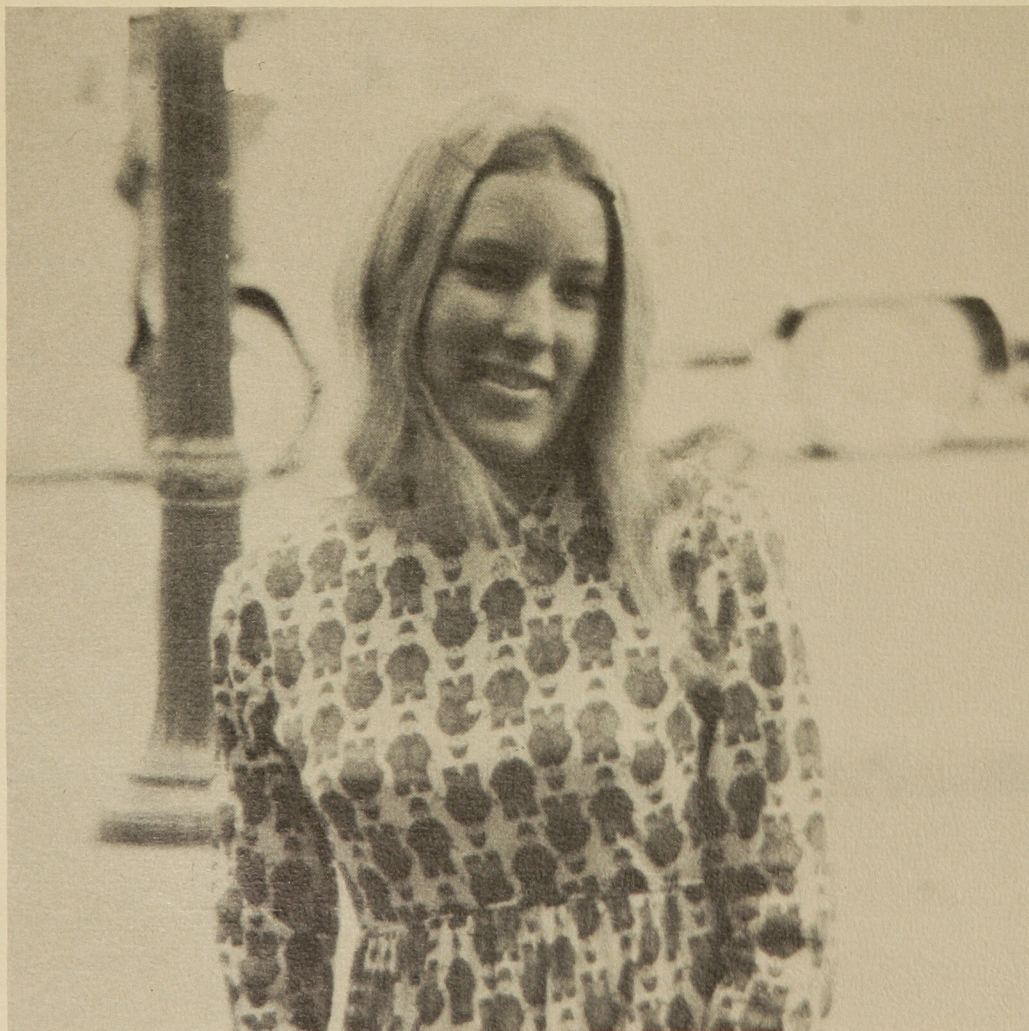

Welcoming students back from summer vacation, were Alameda High's fall student body officers. Assisting President Brian Neilsen were Christy Watkins-vice president, Jodi Belden-recording secretary, Wayne Ibarolle-financial secretary and Diane Lawrence-fall yell leader.

The fall officers worked hard to create more student involvement and give students more voice in student affairs.

They also decided to hold student body meetings every other week rather than the traditional weekly meetings. This way, they were able to present "Quality" entertainment to the student body.

AD-BOARD and Student Court

Get Down To Business

The 1972 Fall Student Court decided to take a different approach this year. Instead of dealing solely with the cases that result from Board of Control citations, the court is working along with the Ad Board and the Leadership class in the revision of the A.H.S. constitution.

Those on the Student Court are: Nancy Monaco, Brian Boerman, Rick Shannon, Leon Corcus, Doug Ratto, and alternate Charles Penaulver.

Ad Board has been working hard this fall to achieve better understanding between the students and the faculty. Again they held an opening dance to start and welcome the school year.

Speaker Angelo Martinez is helped during meetings by vice speaker Dan Kysor, recording secretary Laura Nelson, and Leon Corcos as sergeant of arms.

1972's fall spirit girls, are livelier and bursting with action. More fun and enthusiasm than any other line of rah-rah girls at A.H.S.

Head Pom-Pon girl Sue McAfee and her line, Betty Murray, Dana Spier, Nannette Barbera, Jayne Rizzi, Judy Ortner, Leslie English, and Pam Canales add quiet spirit to the yell leader's demanding forcefulness.

A new addition to this gathering of support are the Letter Girls, with head Kathy Kurliniski and her letter carriers, Mary Martin, Kathy Cirmelli, Kathy Herrigstad, Patty Thomas, Debbie Burr, Renee Dickerson, and Maria Mariania.

home-coming 1972

On a wet and rainy day the five homecoming beauties of 1972 came onto Thompson Field under umbrellas.

Renie Richina, Kathy Hunter, Laura Nelson, Sharon Camicia and Debbie Sivyer with their escorts Brain Nielsen, Wayne Barolle, Bill Ward, and Dan Channcey, came in formals and suits to find out who was the crowning queen and who her 4 princesses.

Standing on the muddy field during half time they listened in suspense as the voice over the loud speaker announced the following:

Debbie Sivyer queen, Renie, Kathy, Sharon and Laura her princesses in that order.

Yet Debbie wasn't on the field to receive this title so Renie Richina became queen and the remaining girls her princesses.

Get It Together

Phillip Hannamura flies to Germany.

American Field Service has provided many opportunities for students at A.H.S., such as giving students the chance to learn about foreign countries and their school systems.

A.F.S. club advisor, Mrs. Kiewlich, provided new and invigorating ideas to benefit not only the club as a whole, but the individual members as well.

This year's A.F.S. student at Alameda was Enrico Trabattoni, from Italy. Phillip Hannamura, Alameda student, is visiting Germany through the A.F.S. program.

This year's Soph-Hop, "Crystal Blue Persuasion" was a big success, according to chairman Leslie English, and co-chairman Lynn Elan. The Sophomore class came out with money to spare, different from preceding years.

Along with the traditional candy lei, there were some new additions made for more student enjoyment. Among these were a marriage and divorce booth.

While amusing themselves at the booths, those attending were able to listen to two bands, Cookin' Mama and Tree Hogen Lodi.

ACORN Staff

Creates New Image

Alameda's Acorn Staff this year has created a new, enlightened image, replacing the old pattern, used for previous AHS yearbooks. This years model patterns itself after a College yearbook, giving it a much better organization and format.

The Acorn Staff being very enthusiastic about all the additions, such as colored paper, more candid pictures, and the center fold-out, used new ideas and their imaginations to help give the 1972-'73 AHS yearbook a more student comprehensive effect.

The yearbook went on sale in early September, at a cost of $6.00 with a student body card, and $6.50 without one. This years Acorn is well worth the price paid for it.

The members of the Acorn staff are; Debbie Cardwell, editor; Bonnie Burke, Ann Dale, Shawn Martin, Ruth Laviolette, Angelo Martinez, Mike Thompson, Barbara Tkoch, Dyanna French.

Jeff Sass, Denise Marsh, Steve Lilley, Vicki Lowther, James Douglas, Denise Gerber, Paul Murphy, and Bob Rhodes.

Oakleaf Encourages New Interests

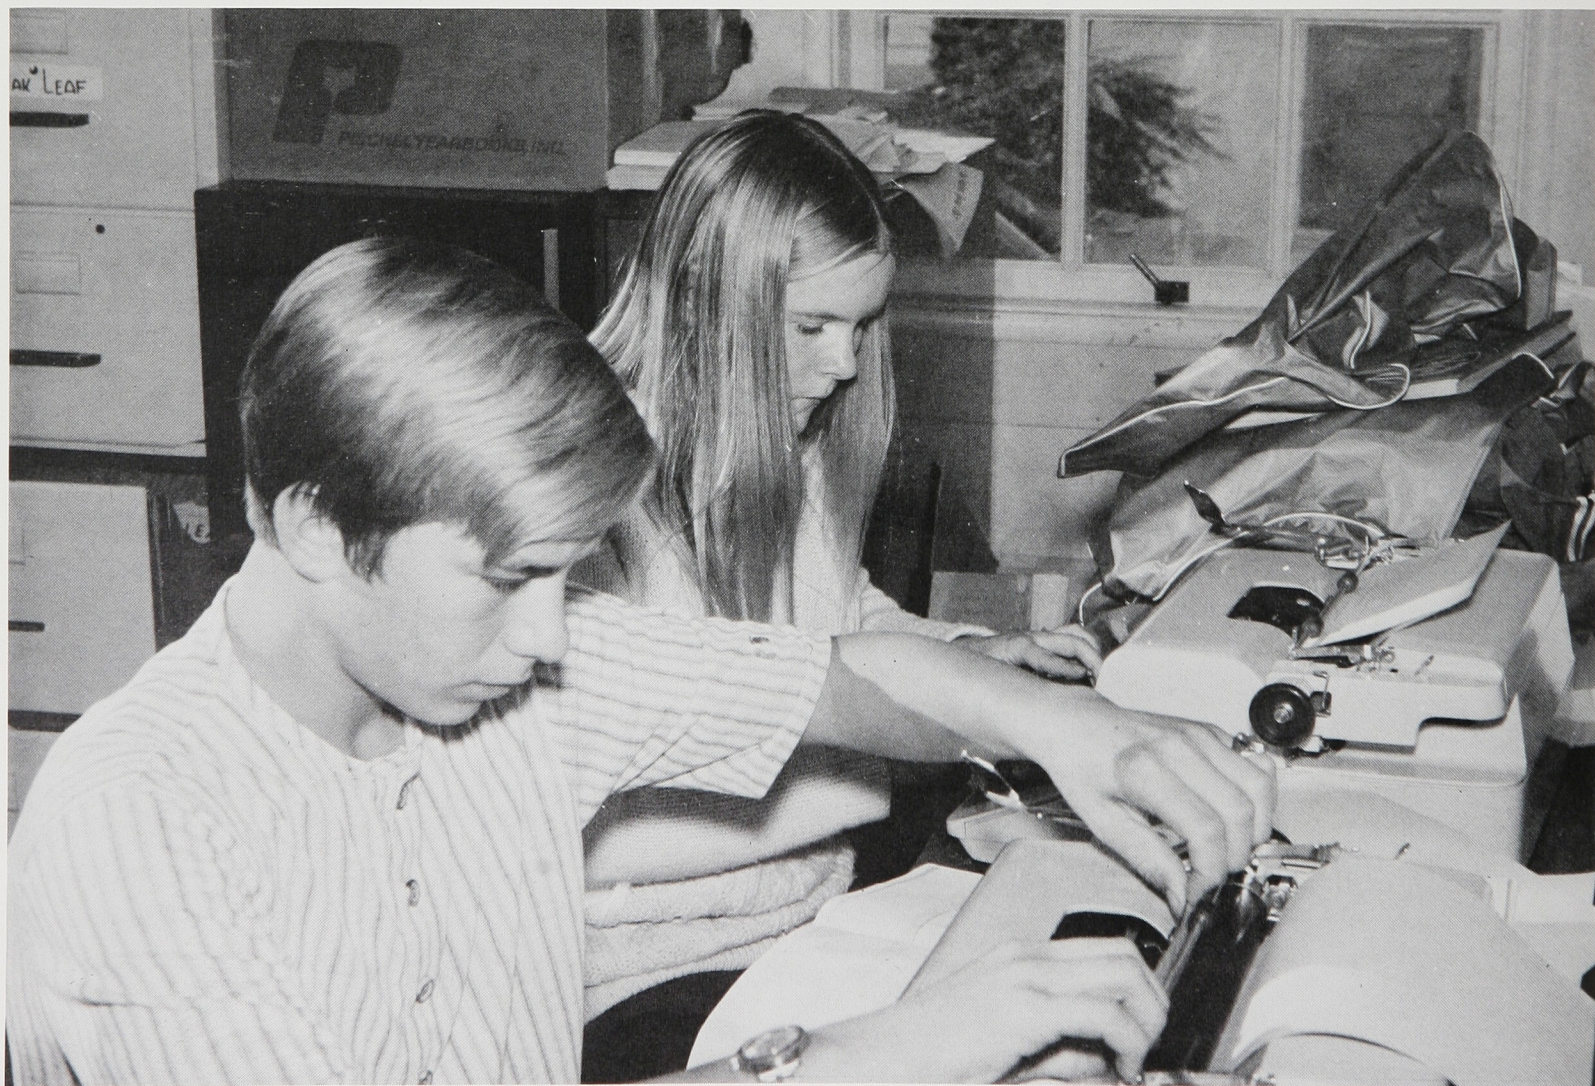

This year the Oak Leaf has changed for the better. The staff is bigger than usual, so more people are contributing.

The paper has gone further than school news by informing students of community and national affairs. By reading the Oak Leaf, students now can get a better idea of more than just school news.

Glee Clubs: add notes to a.h.s.

This year's Glee Club's activities have been few but meaningful. The groups presented both Spring and Winter Concerts, performed at Grammar schools and entertained at the Maid of Alameda Contest. Directed by Mrs. Carol Cedarleaf, the Glee Club's potential has risen high with confidence from performers and spectators alike.

Spring Officers Start Off Right

President Joe Martin heads the list of the Spring Officers. Spring Vice President was James Johnson. Kathy Hunter and Dotti Green take it from there as Recording and Financial Secretaries. Bringing up the rear is Spring Yell Leader Jim Walpole. Elected in January, the new officers guided a good semester for all of the AHS Student Body.

Jane Rizzi, speaker for spring Ad Board.

Ad Board with Speaker Jane Rizzi, accomplished more this spring than most Ad Boards of the past.

Vice-speaker Don Ratto, Recording Secretary Sally Hallowell, and Sergeant-at-Arms Phil Camicia headed the stand Ad Board took on the crucial matter of the school bond and Alameda's master plan.

Not only did they fight for the school bonds and the incoming students, they aided them by buying a video-tape machine for students to use and by replacing the file cabinets in the student council room.

After setting up a human relations committee, the members gave it their full support. Some of those members were: Allison Kapchan, Louie Schroeder, Kathy Herrera, Mike Cooper, Bob Rhodes, Leon Corcos, Joe Martin, Mary Martin, Laura Nelson, Jim Walpole, Kathy Hunter, Dottie Green, Robbie and Steve Silverman, Sheila Lynch and Angelo Martinez.

Ad Board members await the end of a meeting.

Spring pom-pom and yell- leaders

The 1973 Spring Pom-pom and Yell Leaders' lines are really something. As always they have new and different outfits to distinguish them from the average spirit maker.

Going to basketball games, baseball games, swim meets and track meets, they shout and cheer on the team with their forceful encouragement. Yet all this is normal and has been done by all the other spirit girls from years past. But what makes this Spring line different from all the rest? Jim Walpole that's what.

For the first time in modern days there's a boy head yell leader to lead all of the spirited girls. Yes, this spring has really sprung something that's different and new.

'Reflections' Theme for Junior Prom

Barbara Schacht, Dave McFann, Carol Molnar, and Allison Kapchan discuss Mr. Lochner's dancing technique.

'Reflections' was the theme for this year's Junior Prom, which was held March 30, at the Alameda Hotel Ballroom.

Mantra was the featured band. Tickets were sold at $4.50. Dance Co-Chairmen were Debi Duncan and Ruben Hernandez.

The Class of '73 held its Senior Banquet at the Claremont Hotel with over 150 seniors in attendance. A delicious buffet was served which featured several hot dishes and a wide variety of salads.

Each of the seniors in attendance paid $5.25 for the dinner.

Entertainment included a skit put on by members of the class and music was provided for those who wished to dance.

Senior class advisor Mr. Larry Regello thought the evening was a huge success, one the class could be proud of.

Fifty dollars went to the outstanding underclassman to help her further her dancing abilities. They sold suckers to help achieve this goal.

Two guest artists showed the girls various types of dancing, much to the joy of Mrs. Molnar. The classes then were invited to Laney and Merritt Colleges to show the masterclasses their steps.

The Minds Of SPRD, Chess Club, And Coin Club Unite

SPRD members meet to discuss year's activities.

The Chess Club, which meets every noon in room 223, is open to all students in the game of Kings.

The team, which consists of the five best players of the club, had yet another dismal season, only able to win two matches. Both of these were against Fremont. The team members are Matt Hubbard; first board, Bill Aquino; second board, Todd Philips; third board, Steve Clary; fourth board, and Keith Geer; fifth board.

The Coin Club has weekly meetings where members trade coins and ideas. The club also subscribes to three publications which help members determine the value of their collections.

The main goal of the Students For Political Research and Debate is to arouse political awareness in the student body. SPRD hopes to achieve this goal by debating and discussing current political issues in the community, nation and world.

This year, because of the important elections, SPRD sponsored guest speakers from several of the political campaign parties.

The faculty advisors are Mr. Daniel Wagner, and Mr. Bruce Tingwall.

SINGERS AND SKIERS TREK

In spite of several unforeseen problems, such as unpredictable and unexpected weather conditions and bus problems, the ski club had a banner year. A record number, 206 students, joined the club. All ski trips were held as scheduled. Included were two two-day trips to Heavenly Valley, and a couple of one day trips to Sugar Bowl, Alpine Meadows, and Squaw Valley.

Officers of the club were: Larry Kiesler, president, Scott Bonilla vice-president, Lynn Stiles, secretary, John Purcell treasurer, and Karen White, financial secretary. Dr. Gates continued as faculty sponsor and was assisted by Miss Rizley and Mrs. Winzenread.

The Crescendo Club, a musical club which meets every second Tuesday, has had a full and exciting year. From Christmas caroling in San Francisco and a Solo Ensemble Concert in the Little Theater, to a picnic in May and an ice skating party, their schedule has really been full.

The Crescendo Club Officers are: President Lisa Hempy, Vice-President Cathy McClure, Secretary Barbara Higby, Financial Secretary Lisa Harrison, Publicity Manager Roso Wilson and Assistant Publicity Managers Claudia Perkins and Kim Varner.

and C.S.F.

C.S.F., unique as a statewide organization, stimulates interest, fosters pride in high standards of scholarship, and encourages further education for highly qualified young people. Through its purpose and organization, the Federation is ideally fitted to contribute to the nationwide effort to identify, motivate, and encourage students with intellectual ability.

Usherettes work at school plays and also at graduation. They are representing Alameda as well as Alameda High, as they hand out programs and seat people. (The girls pictured are only some of the Usherettes this year. The membership is over 35 people.)

The Courtesy Board is composed of girls who act as "official hostesses" for Alameda High School. They start by helping with Freshman Orientation, they serve at P.T.A. meetings when needed and they are always seen at the Sports Banquet serving the guests.

This active organization is "on call" when needed for service to their school.

50th Anniversary for R.O.T.C.

1973 marks the 50th Anniversary of the Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps program at Alameda High School.

Under the aegis of LTC Edwin S. Harrison (Ret.), Director of Army Instruction for the Alameda Unified School District, MSG Roger B. Wallace (Ret.), Senior Army Instructor at Alameda High School, and Cadet Major Charles Penalver, the program this year has been a full and busy one for the cadets with parades, competition, and field trips in which they participated.

Beginning in October, the Alameda unit participated in the Annual Alameda County Veteran's Day Parade in San Leandro, in which the Color Guard and the Special Marching Platoon won 2nd place trophies.

In November, the JROTC held its Annual "Turkey Shoot" as a fund raising venture, during which students, faculty, and parents won Thanksgiving turkeys as a result of their target shooting talents. Also in November, the battalion journeyed to the Alameda Naval Air Station to participate in helicopters flown over from the Presidio of San Francisco.

In March, members of the battalion were hosted by the California Army National Guard for a field trip to Camp Parks where they were shown the intricacies of firing the M14 and M16 Army Rifles.

Fire!

Forward march!

There was also a week-end field trip to Camp Roberts as guests of the California Army National Guard to participate in an extensive field maneuver exercise involving repelling down mountainsides, improvising methods of river crossing, and a search-and-sieze exercise as a part of the CAL ARNG 159th Infantry Battalion's field problem against fictitious aggressor composed of the Army Reserve's Special Forces.

Culminating the year's activities was the Annual Mayor's Trophy Competition with Encinal High School in May.

With a 3-4 record for the season the Hornets were able to tie for third place in the southern division of the ACAL. What destroyed all hopes for a berth in the playoffs was injuries to key players.

Dan Reynolds had a real good season as he rushed for 1,127 yards.

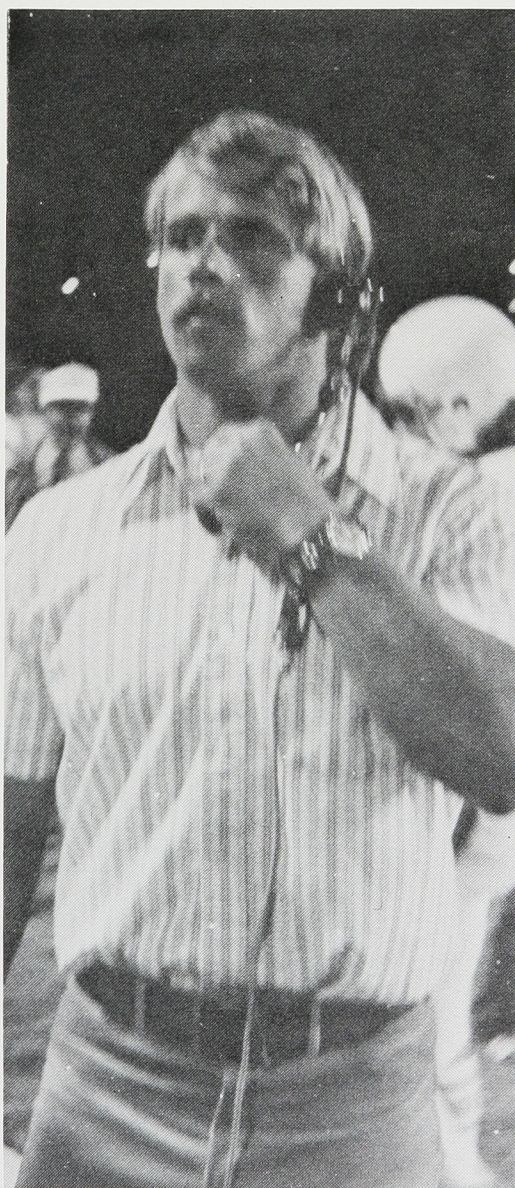

John Duncan QB for the Hornets led the league in overall passing statistics, as he passed 1,002 yards in eight games.

The air targets for Duncan were Mark Dorfman and Duncan Haffner, who both combined for 10 touchdown passes.

The most consistent players on the Hornets were Joe Damele, Mark Dorfman, and John Childe. The defensive standouts were Dave May, John Childe and Dan Reynolds. Co-Captains were Joe Damele and Dan Reynolds.

All-league selections were Dan Reynolds, 2nd team running back and first team line backer, Duncan Haffner, 2nd team wide-receiver; John Duncan, 2nd team safety; Mark Dorfman, 2nd team tight end.

The 1972-73 JV football team completed the season with a 3-3-1 league record. Overall they were 3-5-1.

Linemen Stan Antunovich, Tom McKee, Dave Miller, Tim Keegan, and Phil Sloan were responsible for opening holes for ball carriers Del Laviolette and Mark Ironside.

Due to a concussion sustained during late summer workouts Q.B. Dave French was only able to play in one league game. His replacement, sophomore George Calandri, did a fine job. His air targets were split-end Bill Taber and tight-end Hal Snider along with Laviolette and Ironside.

The defense was led by linebacker Stan Antunovich and end Tom McKee.

The Soph-Frosh football team had a disappointing year with a 0-8-1 record. Players who showed good potential on offensive were Mike Cooper, Bill O'Connell, and Herb Fuentes.

On defense, Bob Pagano, Mike Werk, and Steve Goodard were outstanding.

Although the 1972-73 Varsity Basketball team did not have a winning season or gain a post-season playoff spot, they still set a record for most season wins (11) since 1967.

During the pre-season slate the Hornets won six of 12 games. Pacing the attack were the three returning lettermen on the squad. Wayne Ibarolle topped the team in scoring with 13 points and hauled down nine rebounds per game. John McKee tallied at a 11.4 per game followed by John Duncan at nine points for each contest.

Highlighting the pre-season play were victories over DeLaSalle 58-52, Bay Counties champ Emery 38-33, and Hayward League contender Tennyson, 43-36.

In A.C.A.L. competition the Hornets won five games while losing nine. Victories came over San Leandro (2), Pacific, Pinole Valley, and DeAnza.

Ibarolle won second team All-A.C.A.L. while averaging 15 points and 13 rebounds per game. Against arch rival Encinal he scored on 12 of 13 field goals, scored 26 points and pulled off a school record 26 rebounds. He also was named Sportsman of the Week by the East Bay Prep Writers Association. He was also named the Hornets Most Valuable Player and Most Improved Player.

Duncan scored at 13.9 points per game while leading the team in assists with 65 in A.C.A.L. play. McKee scored at 13.0. Rounding out the starting team were Mark Jones and Ken Fong. Other letter winners included Enrico Trabattoni, Jeff Vasquez, Mike Norton, Bob Rhodes, Terry White, and Dave Haber.

The B team works out with the Varsity and competes in dual meets run in conjunction with the varsity.

Outstanding performances were turned in by soph Mark Simmons in the 440, and Norman Jensen in the 440-880 races. Both should be top varsity runners next year.

Chris Warren and Dan Mills turned in good times in the Mile, while Mills and Dave Acosta topped the Two Milers.

Mike Roodvoets heads the field events. As a soph, he was the best in both the Shot Put and the Discus. Bill Dodge and Jack Healy performed well in the Triple Jump and Pole Vault.

The Girl's Swim Team season opened at the start of school and ended just before Thanksgiving. At the end of the season they had won 6 out of 9 of their meets.

This year's team was comprised of 55 members including four divers. The divers were Linda King, Nancy Nelson, Mariella Pacosky and Donna Reitsma. These girls kept the meets alive with their works of Art.

Three new records were established for A.H.S. Setting the records were Janet Gulbransen and Rene Dickerson, in the 100 yard medley, 100 yard breaststroke and the 25 yard butterfly.

Co-captains for the team were Janet Gulbransen and Laura Nelson. With the help from these girl's the team held a swim-a-thon. Raising money for the team's new swimming suits.

Girls Have Best Season Ever

Having a picture taken isn't so easy.

In its third year under the coaching of Mrs. Carol Clymo, and with the added help of manager Dayle Farina, Alameda's gymnastics team has had its best season yet. Co-captains, Judy Broughton and Marilyn Eichelberger, led their team to victories against Encinal, Berkeley, Amador, and spurred them on to a third place in the Northern California Section II Compulsory Meet.

Returning veteran intermediates are Marilyn Eichelberger and Judy Broughton, who have each taken a 1st place all-around award in one of the Northern Calif. meets. Other intermediates who showed their graceful skills this year were Linda King and Karen Healy.

Outstanding novices were Kim Coler-dark and Arlene Bernadino. Both should hope for more successful years. Connie Espinoza and Nancy Nelson did their job as publicity chairmen helping to encourage the team. Even with the "weirdos" at this time, Mrs. Clymo sees higher recognition for her team in the future.

Under the direction of coaches Jim Glazier, Ed Hagen, and Jerry DeLozier the Babies managed to beat the Mamas 31-19. While the coach of the Mama's Wayne Ibarolle, applied all his talents but unfortunately to no avail.

Top shooters for the Babies team were Soph co-captain Diana Souza and Frosh Mary Sherman. Diana Lawrence led her team in rebounding while April DeCelle showed remarkable playing and shooting ability.

At half time refreshments were served by the A.F.S. Committee, a 16 piece pep band and a routine done by Harry Hartman, Steve Littlejohn, Bob Follrath, and Mark Ironside highlighted the break. Announcing was Robbie Rattoe.

not left behind,
The same school in the future shall we find.

Class Of '74

The junior class has really gone out of its way this year to carry out its money making ideas. An overnight ski trip, their junior prom "Reflections", and the "Junior Jingle," a 9 to 12 dance, were a few of their activities.

They are planning big events for their senior year and figure there's no time like the present to start. And they've started.

Class Of '76

It's not easy being a freshman, with more responsibilities, a new school and tough classes. And it's even harder to get a good class government started. Yet the class of 76 has succeeded in all of these.

Many freshmen participate in their class politics and why not? For their treasury is booming with the money collected from candy and cupcake sales.

Your Fine Records Merit a Successful Future

"Your All-Night Party Host"

The greatest gift one can give, or receive, is friendship. Friendship knows no limitation, nor the meaning of discrimination. Its magic touches all ages. It teaches respect. From friendship blossoms gentleness; and through it, plant, animal and man become kin.

Friendship is also the beginning of love. And, love requires giving of oneself. Thus, if each of us gives of friendship and love, there can be peace and goodwill among all mankind, this year, and all the future years.
